

Active Aging Canada's Knowledge Translation Framework

Creation

Research Partners

Knowledge Creation/ Research

Partner with researchers to inform research projects.
Act as an access point to older adult subject pools.
Engage in knowledge synthesis to integrate research and inform dissemination tools.

Knowledge Creation/Research

Conduct ongoing research on all KT activities to provide feedback to researchers.

Knowledge Exchange

Facilitate direct interaction for mutual learning between researchers & the knowledge users (intermediaries, adults and older adults)

Brokering

Active Aging Canada

Knowledge Dissemination

Tailor the message & medium to the knowledge users.

Knowledge Application

Put knowledge into practice.

Knowledge Exchange

Knowledge Dissemination

Make resources public through publication/ Web.

Knowledge Application

Educate and assist adults and older adults to adopt a healthy active lifestyle.

Knowledge Exchange

Use

Intermediaries

Practitioners
Professional Organizations
Policy Makers

Knowledge Dissemination

Knowledge Exchange

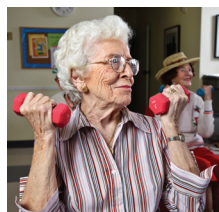

Knowledge Application

Public

Programs
Education
Outreach

Healthy Active Aging

Physical Activity

Healthy Eating

Mental Health

Beliefs and Attitudes

Outcome